Rustburg Wins Two From Raiders

The Rustburg Red Devils scored early in the second game and came from behind in the first game to take both ends of a doubleheader from the Appomattox Raiders last Monday. They won the first 6-3 and the second 4-1 as the Seminole District baseball section about draws to a close.

Appomattox led 3-1 in the first game after four innings of play, but a four run explosion in the fifth gave the Red Devils the lead. In the second game Rustburg scored all their runs before the Raiders could score and then held on for that win.

Appomattox is now 5-9 in the district and Rustburg 6-9.

Goode Places 5th In State Meet

Phillip Goode, a senior at Appomattox County High School, on the right, receives congratulations from Coach George Blanton, on the left, after placing 5th in the State Track Meet held in Blacksburg, Virginia on Saturday.

Goode placed 3rd in the Seminole District Track Meet to qualify for the Regional competion, and qualified 3rd place in the regionals to be eligible for State competion. His best distance in Discus Throw was 142 feet 2½ inches in the State Track Meet and this earned him 5th place in the state. He will receive a medal for his performance.

The son of Mrs. Otelia Goode, of Evergreen, Goode plans to attend Liningstone College in North Carolina in the Fall.

Coach Blanton says, "Goode sure will be missed next year".

The Thespian Society at the Appomattox Intermediate School is working hard on their production "Caring For Karen", a play they will present on Friday night, May 25th.

THESPIAN SOCIETY WORKING ON BIG PRODUCTION

The Thespian Society at Appomattox Intermediate School is holding final rehearsals for the BIG PRODUCTION, "Caring For Karen", which is to be presented this Friday night, May 25th, at 7:30 p.m. at the AIS Auditorium.

The history behind this play deals with determined people and hard work. The play is an original by Mrs. Sweet and Miss Umberger.

The play is centered around a misfortunate girl who cannot seem to get a date for the big prom, and going to the prom is every girl's dream. Well, jealousy is a sad thing and Karen finds this out when she makes up a date so she won't feel so left out as her two girl friends are giggling over their handsome guys and the wonderful dresses they will be wearing and how much fun they will have!

Well, the boat rocks when Karen finds out she has too many dates. Puzzled?

Come this Friday night and find out what happens in this light-hearted comedy. Admission will be 75c for adults and 50c for children.
